Will Ask Postponement of the Olympic Games

American Commissioner Says Athletes From This Country Will Not Be Able to Compete on the Date Set by the Germans—College Men Will Not Have Had Time to Get in Shape.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—James E. Sullivan, American Olympic commissioner, has announced that he would request the German Olympic committee on behalf of the United States team, to postpone the opening of the Olympic games at Berlin in 1916 at least one week. According to cables received from Berlin the opening events in the track and field program are set for July 1. This date would prove a handicap to the American team, according to Mr. Sullivan, since it would require the United States representatives to sail before the closing of the American colleges and universities from which many members of the 1916 team are expected to be recruited. A dispatch from Berlin says:

"The principal track and field events of the Olympic games to be held here in 1916 are to be decided between July 1 and 10, according to an announcement made today by the German Olympic committee. The June dates contemplated earlier were abandoned by the committee at the instance of the United States, which objected because college athletes from that country would be unable to attend at that time of the year."

"The football and hockey championships are to be contested on May 29 and June 2, respectively, and the rowing on August 12. The dates for the sailing, golf, etc., have not yet been fixed."

In discussing the conditions, Mr. Sullivan said:

"It was the original intention of the German Olympic committee to open the track meet about the middle of June. When I was abroad last summer I explained the situation from an American standpoint and requested a later date. The German committee evidently made a concession to us, but even to open the games on July 1 will work a hardship on our team in 1916. The Stockholm games began on July 6 and a similar date at Berlin would be far more acceptable. Close to 50 percent of the team will be college students, some of whom will be graduated in the spring of that year. In many cases it would be impossible for them to leave college before June 15 or later. To sail on that or a later date would put the team into Berlin with little or no time for final training."

"Expecting Hard Battle."

"I sincerely hope that we can secure a postponement of the opening for a week at least for it will mean a big difference in the chances of the American team winning. The games of 1916 will be closer and harder to win than ever before and no team of the size of the American aggregation will have to travel the distance that ours will be obliged to undertake. That extra week means more to the American competitors than to any other country. Interested in the Olympic games and I feel sure that when the conditions are understood fully by the German committee the concession will be granted."

"Owing to the early and thorough manner in which the Germans are preparing for the next Olympic meet all these details will be arranged for in advance and we are already planning for our part in what will be, without doubt, the greatest athletic games ever held. From present indications the United States team will consist of about 150 athletes drawn from the colleges and amateur athletic clubs as the result of a series of trial games held in various parts of the country as in 1912. In view of the new rule adopted at the recent meeting of the International Federation of Athletic Association, which permits but six starters in an Olympic event in place of 12 as formerly, it will be necessary to use greater discretion in selecting the team."

"I am in favor of a final tryout after the sectional meets, in which every winner, second and third man shall compete. These final tests should be held at a central point, such as Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, or Buffalo, and the first six finishers in each track and field event chosen to form the United States team. Under these conditions it would be a fair field and no favor for all and those who ultimately made the team would be without question the best in their events."

According to the present plans of the American Olympic commission, the team, which will consist of about 150 athletes who will be quartered in some suburban hotel near Berlin during the games and the American consul at Berlin has already been requested to secure a list of suitable quarters in order that they may be inspected and a selection made during the summer of 1914 when members of the commission will be in Berlin attending the Olympic conference for the final arrangements for the games. It can be stated that the team will not be taken to Europe in a specially chartered steamer as was the case in 1912."

MURPHY SUMMONED IN CORRUPTION HEARING

METHODISTS TO AID WORLD EVANGELISM

National Commission of Methodist Men Makes Appeal for Personal Campaign in Religious Work.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 31.—The new report of the policy commission of the National Commission of Methodist Men was adopted unanimously today and without debate. Bishop W. F. McDowell, of Chicago, who read the report, asked that be accepted without debate, so that the support of the message would not be destroyed.

Personal Evangelism.

The report, in brief, declares for a campaign for personal evangelism; for bringing up the youths in the church; for the dedication of one-tenth of their income into the church; for the hearty support of all boards created by the church; to assist in civic, industrial, social and educational uplift, and to reaffirm the action of the general church on higher education, for large funds for needy paid ministers, and for the cause of temperance.

The resolutions also contain a statement made yesterday pleading for the evangelizing of the world and accepting responsibility for 5,000,000 people. Before the adoption of the report an attempt was made to include a resolution in behalf of the superannuated ministers, but this failed.

All Activities Not Included.

Another resolution introduced by the business committee urged the latter to assist the district superintendent in adopting the new financial scheme in all the churches.

Bishop McDowell in explaining the report, said all the activities of the church were not included for the reason that the committee did not wish to burden it with details to the exclusion of its spiritual force.

"This is not a convention for the passing of the tariff bill or for the revising of the currency," said the bishop. "It is a convention solely for stimulating interest in the kingdom of God."

Endorse Prohibition.

A resolution endorsing national prohibition and the campaign of the National Anti-Saloon league to suppress the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages was adopted by the convention amid great applause.

The resolution sets forth that, "we stand for the speediest suppression of all liquor traffic, and that 'the only proper attitude of civil government toward anything so harmful as the liquor traffic is that of absolute prohibition.'"

It urges all Methodists to cooperate in all movements for liquor prohibition.

RESCUE GIRL FROM ALLEGED SLAVERS

New York Police Receive Note From Josephine McLoughlin, Implores Aid, and Then Held Fast.

New York, Oct. 31.—Josephine McLoughlin, 14 years old, missing for a week and for whom the police had been asked to search was rescued today from two alleged traffickers in women who had kept her prisoner since the night of her disappearance.

A note imploring aid was written by the girl this morning and pushed through the shutters of a window. It fluttered down before the feet of a citizen, who notified the police. A spectacular raid of the place followed and two prisoners were taken.

The girl told the police that she left her mother's home on the night of October 23 with a young man she had met a few days previously, to attend a dance. Her escort took her, instead, to the flat from which she was rescued. There she met a man and woman who concealed her clothes and watched her closely.

John Hamilton, a driver, one of the girl's alleged captors, was locked up on a charge of abduction. A girl companion was charged with disorderly conduct. She said her name was Elizabeth Clark and the police, searching their records, found that her disappearance from home had been reported a month ago by her father and that a general alarm for her, too, had been issued.

The police are seeking the young man who took the McLoughlin girl to the flat.
